

Please protect the Telephone Consumer Protection Act docket 02-278. I do not feel telemarketers have the right to bother me at times of their choosing. They can contact me by mail. If I am in the market for something I will shop around at times and places of my own choice, rather than be bothered by their invasion of my privacy, at all hours, which is the tendency of telemarketing. Thank you for your protection.